

Building Support for a STRONGER VERITAS ACADEMY

Just as classical Roman buildings embodied the enduring strength of the Roman Empire, we at Veritas Academy hope to build a strong base of support that will strengthen classical Christian education in Texarkana now and for years to come. Would you consider helping with part of our “building”?

The classical building in Rome had certain architectural components, each of which was essential to the success of the whole. Each building started with a solid foundation to give it long-term stability. Columns allowed that stability to soar to impressive heights. Domes held the structure together and provided shelter from the elements. Ornamentation humanized the structure to make it livable.

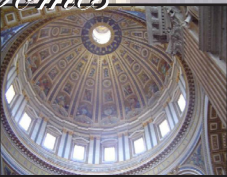

In our quest to build a lasting school and home to generations of well equipped students, we need partners and patrons that will provide these essential parts of the building. Would you prayerfully consider partnering with Veritas Academy in one of these categories?

Ornamentation

A gift of $100-$499 will include you in the Ornamentation Outfitters. Ornamentation on a Roman building makes the building unique and breathtaking. Ornamentation represents the special and the many that will make the school great.

Domes

A gift of $500-$999 will include you among the Dome Donors. The Dome sets the building apart from others in the city as well as providing the obvious roof. Dome Donors represent those that shelter and protect our school.

Columns

A gift of $1,000-$4,999 will include you in the Column Contributors. Roman columns were beautiful and as well as functional. These patrons represent our pillars of support and will be recognized on our website and other published media throughout the year.

Foundations

A gift of $5,000+ will give you the status of a Foundation Financer. No building can be of any value without the strong and lasting Foundation. Please, consider supporting Veritas in this way. Along with your donation, please provide your business' logo or business card so we may adequately thank you for your support on our website and various banners throughout the year. You will also receive 2 free admissions to our year end celebration and silent auction.
